Summary

I am a Christian who happens to be a Psychometrician, Psychology Major, and Filipino Youth Leader. I aim for opportunities and experiences in lined with education management, community development, or social work. I have affiliated myself with advocacy-based organizations and got involved in their projects over the years. My philosophy is that the world is not just changed by our opinions, but more importantly by our examples.

Volunteer Experience

Project Head at DLSU-D College of Liberal Arts and Communication Student Council (CLACSC)

May 2014 - May 2015

Served through being the project head of iTeach Math tutorial program, where I had the task to create the project proposal and other communication letters, coordinate with the Mathematics Department, delegate tasks with co-officers, and secure the accomplishment of all preparations. I also had the responsibility to determine the scope of assistance needed, disseminate the opportunity of this program to all CLAC students, and create a flexible schedule according to their academic needs.

Standard Bearer/Member at SENTRO La Salle Political Party

November 2013 - May 2016

Served through helping the candidates arrive with their plans-of-actions, make campaign speeches, improve public image, practice debates, and keep everyone morally grounded. I had the responsibility of upholding, representing, communicating and educating the principles and stances of our political party.

Staffer for Logistics (CALABARZON Y2G Team) at AIESEC Philippines

November 2015 - January 2016

Served through identifying a venue and gathering resources in order to afford it. I managed to connect with student organizations which were eager to partner with AIESEC Philippines. Furthermore, I was also assigned to take charge in finalizing the preparation of the materials, props, and equipment needed for the event proper.

Group Facilitator at Christ's Commission Fellowship

August 2016 - Present

Serving as a group facilitator in a faith-based program for surrendered drug dependents and their families called SIPAG (SIMula ng PAGasa). It is a Ministry for drug dependents surrendering to the government. God has opened doors of opportunities for the church to minister to them, their family, the police, and the local government officials. It is a nationwide 12-week recovery program which will help lead these people to our Lord Jesus.

Co-Project Head at DLSU-D University Student Council (USC)

February 2016 - Present

Served through co-spearheading the HAPPINESS MOVEMENT, a fundraising project and healthy wellness campaign, in response to recent incidents of poor mental health among students due to stress in all aspects.
